Territory of New Mexico Census 1885

INTRODUCTION

This index of names from the population schedule for the 1885 Census of the Territory of New Mexico is primarily based upon the microfilm copy of the census schedules on file with the United States National Archives and Records Administration (“NARA”), in Washington, D.C. A history of the 1885 census is included in the NARA pamphlet describing NARA microfilm series number M846 and which is reprinted in the Bernalillo County volume for this index project. See also, Mark B. Thompson, “The 1885 New Mexico Census: A Hidden Gem,” New Mexico Genealogist (Vol. 46, no. 1, March 2007), pp. 22 & 22.

This volume also includes names from 23 pages found on the incomplete version of the 1885 New Mexico Territorial Census. See generally, Myra Ellen Jenkins & J. Richard Salazar, Calendar to the Microfilm Edition of the Territorial Archives of New Mexico (N.M. Records Center & Archives, Santa Fe: 1974), pp. 27 & 28. See also, Ralph L. Hayes, “Users Guide to the 1885 Territorial Census,” New Mexico Genealogist, (Vol. 15, no. 1, March 1986), pp. 11-22. As the result of an inquiry from Janelle Foster of Portales, New Mexico, the editor discovered that the first 23 pages of Enumerator District (“ED”) 13, Lincoln County, found on Territorial Archives microfilm, Roll 41, were missing from the NARA version. The names from the Territorial Archives microfilm are identified in this index as “EDTA13.” Without this fortuitous discovery, we would have missed some prominent persons residing in Lincoln County in 1885, including, for example, Charles B. Eddy and Joseph Calloway Lea, namesakes for two counties eventually carved out of Lincoln County.

In addition to Janelle Foster, special thanks to the following persons who made the publication of this volume possible: Joe Sabatini and Gail Rasmussen of the Albuquerque Public Library, Special Collections Branch; our computer wizards, Eldon “Don” Pierce and Marti Adams; and, the volunteer readers, Ann Mossman, Diana Duran, Brenda Cole, Joe Calek, Eileen Marie “Coke” Schmit, and, Howard W. Henry, the latter also being the chairman of the Publications Committee.
